Say what you need without blame

Notice your need

State it

Give both people room

Try “I need space to finish” when someone is crowding your work.